

Congratulations, You're a Bismuth Intern!

Dear Applicant,

Congratulations! On behalf of the Bismuth recruitment team, I am delighted to notify you that you have been offered an internship at Bismuth Technologies. We are thrilled that you will be joining the vibrant start-up and confident that this will be a rich and rewarding experience for you and we are equally proud of the technical skills you are bringing to Bismuth Technologies. Even just as a start-up, Bismuth received a record number of applications. Among this group of extremely talented programmers, critical deep-thinkers, and stern problem solvers, you have distinguished yourself.

Your outstanding accomplishments in the Tech space, the enthusiasm conveyed in your resume, and the qualities of mind and spirit for a start-up captured in your application confirm for us that you can make significant contributions to our young intellectual company. You shall be given a contingent pay of GHC 559.00 per month over the course of the internship period.

Bismuth Technologies, as you learned during your application is a Technology Services Company that uses relentless exploration of winning ideas to build sustainable and distinctive software, products, manage digital systems, and provide flawless solutions to our clients. The indication of our name shows how diverse we are. – a firm that focuses on Software, App & Web Development, and Data Engineering and Analytics. We at Bismuth Technologies. understand the kind of workload involved as a startup and we hope you will be a special part of us so that we all grow together to accomplish our long-term goals.

To accept our internship, offer, please respond to the congratulatory email sent to you!

We are excited you chose to apply and emerged a qualified applicant. We look forward to teaming up with you in the coming weeks.

Sincerely,

Adriana A. Nimo
